My Dr Uncle

I am sorry
Sorry to be necessitated to address You again upon this Subject of (Money) but Dutyful to my duty to Myself ~~& Family~~ and Justice to all, that You Should call and See me as You have Several times promised to do. I hope that You have not caused Your Self to be Shabbily Remember You have promised to call and See me more than once, and what the is the cause of Your not coming I cannot tell, I am sure it is not that I can hurt or harm You, I am past hurting any one in this World & if I was not,
God knows that I do not wish to injure
You, ~~my Uncle,~~ I cannot but feel ~~that~~ ~~You do sure know~~ unkind You call and See me Soon I Shall Consider You have wronged me, Pray Mind think of Your Situation & income and think of mine Sick & no income,

Your Dutiful Son

THE AMATEUR SPIRIT

I play not marches for accepted victors only; I play marches for conquered and slain persons.

Have you heard that it was good to gain the day? I also say it is good to fall. Battles are lost in the same spirit in which they are won.

I beat and pound for the dead.

I blow through my embouchures my loudest and gayest for them.

Vivas for those who have failed!

And to those whose war vessels sank in the sea!

And to those who themselves sank in the sea, and to all Generals that lost engagements and all overcome heroes;

And the numberless unknown heroes, equal to the greatest heroes known. . . .

Walt Whitman: "Song of Myself."

Mr Green

Dear friend for the first time since my arrival home, with a feeble I have attempted to write you a few lines the which I ought to have done long before this but have put it off from time to time in hopes that my health would improve that I might have something Cheering to write to you, my General health has improved much so that I can walk to any part of the Town. but Strangers it may seem to you the Sickle Discharges my back it not worse than ever and my Cough is very Troublesome at times I have taken Cod liver & Gotham, & Cod liver Oil but all to no purpose have been off to Boston with Such the advice of the first Physicians in that City but also that there advice they done is to exhaust Drain my purse of it, Such dollar Ones I think I shall resist to Drain and Depart and Let Doctors & Medicines alone, my Wife has been quite sick but is now getting better. that may be Sorry because upon not writing before for I Can assure you that I have both of my thought of you, no Dear friend I Can never be so ungrateful & to forget you & your kind Brother often very often

A Farewell

Farewell Once more farewell
Oh God my bosoms swell
While words like these i breathe
Would mock the wild sea's heave
When tempest strides around
And shakes the sounding surf & land

Farewell! Once more farewell!
Oh hope it is thy knell!
Oh love it is thy hell,—
And like a magic spell
It chills the very soul,
As ice enchains the pole!

Farewell. Once more farewell
Oh words may never tell
The heart-felt agony
I've felt this hour for thee;
The rending of the chain—
"The last link" snapped in twain!

Farewell! a last farewell
Oh God! the tear-drop's welled
As day and not a sigh to Wile from my bosom fly:
E'en life itself seems crushed
And grief in grief is hushed!
